Circuits, LLC ISO9001:2008 Certification Update

April 2013, Murrysville, PA, Circuits, LLC, a manufacturer of highly reliable flex and rigid flex printed circuit boards announced today their successful completion of the recertification audit for its ISO9001:2008 quality system. The in-depth surveillance audit and examination of Circuits' Quality Management System (QMS) and processes was conducted by Performance Review Institute Registrar (PRI). The recertification is valid for three years and this marks the first recertification audit since the system was implemented in 2010.

The implementation of ISO standards involves all aspects of the business from a quality management perspective; it ultimately improves business systems and processes, enhances customer satisfaction, and improves overall communication. Circuits, LLC is also an ITAR registered company. Learn more about Circuits at www.qualityacrosstheboard.com
