Circuits, LLC Receives Contract from Lockheed Martin

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MURRYSVILLE, PA, April 10, 2012 – Circuits, LLC, a manufacturer of highly reliable flexible printed circuit boards, announced today that it was recently awarded a DO-A6 rated contract by Lockheed Martin Missiles and Fire Control in support of their missile and guided weapons program. The initial contract runs through the third quarter of 2013 and is for both the fabrication and assembly of flexible printed circuits.

“We are extremely excited to be working with Lockheed Martin on this important program,” according to Lori Vidra, Vice President of Sales and Marketing, “this award is a testament to Circuits commitment to being a world-class supplier of flexible printed circuit boards. Circuits is a company of dedicated, customer-focused, quality-driven professionals, and it is evident in our growing customer list.”

Circuits, LLC is International Traffic in Arms (ITAR) registered, which enables the company to provide flexible circuits for defense products.
